

an escape to elegance

By Susan Watson

According to the dictionary, to have “panache” is to have “distinctive stylish elegance.” That’s certainly how you’ll feel after a visit to Panache Hair and Body, located at 3501 Tazewell Pike in the heart of historic Fountain City.

Panache Hair and Body is a beautiful place, where you can leave the hustle and bustle of the day and treat yourself to a new sense of energy, vitalization and beauty. It’s been a favorite salon in the community for many years, with spa services added about five years ago. Owners Christy and Ken Garrison purchased Panache last year, and they are committed to maintaining the indulgent personal and professional services that customers have come to expect. Christy says that their goal is to enhance the Panache tradition, working with their stylists toward the goal of “exceeding our clients’ expectations” with every visit.

The Garrisons have a staff of 17, all of whom are highly trained in their areas of expertise. Panache puts a great deal of emphasis on the continuing education and training of the staff. The quality of the products used and the expertise of the staff guarantee that each customer will be completely satisfied.

Panache is also interested in giving back to the community that has always been supportive of them. They remain involved with local projects and activities, and they’re currently sponsoring a women’s Bible study group. They meet at Panache on Monday mornings at 10. You don’t have to be a Panache client. Call for details or just show-up – no appointment required!

Owner Christy Garrison

Members of the Panache staff include: (front) Krissy Stephens, Rosemary Wheeler, Allyson Hodson, Kristin Keith, Brittany Davidson, Marcy Southerland, Holly Boles, Kelly Barger; (back) Lisa DeFalco, Lindsay Moore, Paul Williams, Marti Raby, owner Christy Garrison, Heather Hutcheson, manager Jennifer Denton and Sheri Walton. Pictured at right: Lauren Johnson. Photos by Ruth White

Drop by Panache for a look around and you’ll find a beautiful, relaxing and tranquil setting with a delightful staff. It’s a warm and welcoming place. Plan a mini-retreat for yourself, some quality “me” time. Schedule your color, nails or massage with one of their experts. From the moment you walk in the door, you’ll feel pampered. You’ll escape from your busy day for a while and when you open the door to leave, you’ll be surprised to be back in Fountain City!

10% off

your first visit with this coupon

New clients only.